Rachel Seim joined the firm in 2017, bringing her family law and litigation expertise.

Seim, an Oxnard resident, is experienced in all aspects of family law, having previously worked as an associate attorney with a family law firm in Ventura. Prior to entering the legal field, Seim achieved great success as a Business Specialist and Planner in the retail industry.

Seim gained substantial experience in court by serving as a volunteer Deputy District Attorney with the Ventura County District Attorney's Office, where she managed a caseload in the misdemeanor crimes unit and co-chaired trials that resulted in guilty verdicts. Through her experience as a volunteer Deputy District Attorney, Seim built upon the legal knowledge she gained as an intern in the Santa Barbara County District Attorney's Office.

Seim earned her law degree in January 2016 from the Santa Barbara and Ventura Colleges of Law, graduating as the top student in her class with highest honors. She earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science from the University of California, Los Angeles.
